RE: MUR 5652 - Terrell for Senate

Dear Mr. Gould:

I appreciate everything that you have done so far to assist the parties that I represent in MUR 5652. It has been a long process and tremendous amount of work for you as well as for the respondents. Nevertheless, I was optimistic that this process was finally nearing a close.

However, as you are aware, all of the parties that I represent live and work in New Orleans, Louisiana and were victims of the recent hurricane. All but one that I have attempted to contact remain unreachable.

Frankly, I am at a total loss as to how to proceed or even how to reinitiate this process under the circumstances. I feel awful for the parties affected and it is obvious that the reality of what is left in New Orleans is extremely grim.

By this letter, I simply wish to submit some formal correspondence for the record regarding these clients and to request a suspension of the current process until such time as it might be possible to proceed.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jill Holtzman Vogel
